

WebSIS Label Printing Feature

In all areas within WebSIS when you print labels there is a new interface which allows you to reuse previously used label sheets. Below is a screen shot of the new interface. You simply click on where you want the labels to start printing and the system will start labels printing from the specified position on the label sheet.

(10/12/2007)